

Incontinence Resources

DEFINITION

Incontinence is involuntary urination or defecation and is a common condition for an elderly individual. They may also have difficulty using the bathroom without assistance due to mobility issues. Sometimes, the professional will offer the choice of using an adult diaper to avoid the mess of involuntary urination or defecation.

Incontinence Resources

Midwest Medical Services (763) 780-0100
Equipment Supplies in Metro & Surrounding Areas
www.midwest-medical.com

Incontinence Resources